Sir:

In response to the Office Action mailed 04-07-2006, please note my comment on the statement of reasons for allowance, as follows:

None of the prior art discloses the combination of a method of characterizing locations by their latitudes and longitudes so that they can be readily compared, together with enabling a browser to choose from a list of presented plans.

Very respectfully,
